WELCOME TO MERRILLVILLE/ROSS TOWNSHIP, INDIANA

Merrillville, Indiana boasts a long rich history, though the town did not officially exist until incorporated in 1971. The town was named after two successful brothers, William and Dudley Merrill. It was a stop-off point for wagon trains heading west. Sixteen trails radiated in all directions, just like today's transportation system here. Merrillville is echoing its early history with a dynamic shout. With surprising energy, the town has rapidly left its rural beginnings to become a major regional center of commerce. It is more than a stopping-off point — Merrillville is the "downtown" of Northwest Indiana.

Enjoying its location as the center of Northwest Indiana, its growth and proximity to metropolitan Chicago, Merrillville has established its identity as a leader in leisure-living and commercial-industrial development. Welcome to Indiana's largest town...MERRILLVILLE.

The Hospitality Guide, published by the Merrillville Chamber of Commerce, provides travelers, visitors, convention goers, and residents with complete information on where to stay, dine, and things to see and do in the Merrillville/Ross Township Area. The establishments listed are here to serve you and will do everything possible to enhance the enjoyment of your stay. The businesses who have advertised helped to make this publication possible. We urge you to utilize their services.

MERRILLVILLE'S VIGOROUS GROWTH CONTINUES

NEW RETAIL! NEW MANUFACTURING! NEW SERVICE INDUSTRIES! Expansion and growth are two main terms used to describe what is happening in Merrillville, Indiana. As new businesses come to town, existing businesses continue to expand. In 1987, for example, we have experienced growth in both new businesses and existing business expansions. Let's take a little closer look at this growth and expansion.

When a Chicago marketing analyst dubbed Merrillville/Ross Township the "Downtown of Northwest Indiana", he said more than he would ever realize.

In 1987 retail space grew by large numbers with the addition of 336,831 square feet of NEW RETAIL SPACE. Retail was not alone in this large expansion of new space. We also saw industrial space increase by 134,898 square feet, while office/commercial (excluding retail) grew by 170,991 square feet.

Overall, business construction in 1987 added 642,720 square feet of new space to the area. Residential space in Merrillville/Ross Township increased considerably, too. Construction of new residential space increased by 184,860 square feet. What does this mean in dollars and cents, you may be asking.

Since new building occurred at a dizzying pace throughout 1986 and we experienced an overall increase of 126% in construction valuation between 1984 and 1986, Merrillville/Ross Township experienced a minor correctional blip while we took a second to catch our breath and evaluate what was happening to our community. In 1987 Merrillville/Ross Township saw an insubstantial decline of only 18% between 1986 and 1987 construction valuation. But Merrillville/Ross Township still experienced a massive $22,435,780 commercial/residential construction value growth in 1987, second highest in this decade.

Merrillville/Ross Township, because of this constant growth pattern has been abel to hang onto its envied position in Lake County of having the lowest tax rate. It has had the lowest rate since 1971. The tax is figured by assessing at 1/3 of true value and then a special factor for each community is applied to that figure which lowers that value. The final tax is then figured on every $100 of the adjusted true value of the property.

Merrillville/Ross Township is centered among one of the best transportation crossroads in America. Interstate-65 and U.S. 30 intersect in the center of Merrillville and boast of a daily use level of over 85,000 vehicles State Highways 55, 53, 80, 90, 94, U.S. 20 and 12, all within five minutes or less.

There are many other good reasons why Merrillville has such a thriving, successful expanding business climate. One of concern to every business bottom line is Unemployment Compensation Benefits/Rates and Worker's Compensation Insurance Costs. "Indiana has the Advantage" when compared to all the other midwest states in 1987.
